

ROBIN BROWN
To Perform Sunday

Guitarist To Appear At College

The first in a series of four Sunday afternoon programs of classical guitar concerts will be held in the El Camino College Campus Theater Sunday at 3:30 p.m.

Robin Brown, singer and classical guitarist, will perform in the first program. Brown began his career as a singer in Yosemite Valley and in the San Francisco Bay area where he performed at the University of California, San Francisco State College, the University of San Francisco, the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, and Saint Mary's College.

Fluent in Polish, Italian, German, and Spanish, he has completed post graduate work in music and languages at the University of California at Berkeley, San Francisco State College, and the Accademia Musicale Chigiana in Siene, Italy. He is currently a faculty member of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music.

Tickets are available in the college bookstore. General admission is $1. Students with activity books will be admitted free.

Other performers in the series include George Sakelariou, radio and concert recitalist in Greece and Canada, Feb. 26; Vincent Michael, former teacher at the Accademia de Musica, San Paulo, Brazil, March 5, and Michael Lorimer, recording artist for Angel classical records, March 12.

TREAT YOUR PET TO A FREE DINNER

Two free cans of Chic-E brand Giblets and Chicken Pet Dinners are being offered with coupons from the company's ads appearing in this week's newspaper.

The free offer to cat and dog owners is being made by the first company ever to package chicken for pets. Because of this long history, Chic-E executives are sure pet owners will be quick to take advantage of the free offer. Besides, your pet will never know you didn't pay for it.

Funds for Trainees Approved

Funds for the training of three unemployed workers have been approved for the Vernitron Corp. of Torrance.

the U. S. Department of Labor has announced. The grant of $8,443 will provide some 50 weeks of training for a machinist, draftsman, and technician at the Torrance facility. The program is part of the Manpower Development and Training Act.
